Loyola By The Numbers

'Tis the Season ~The last three years under Coach Davalli the Dons are 23-3 in the month of December (for a .885 win percentage).

Loyola opens the hoops season this afternoon against the Greyhounds of Gilman School. This year's team returns three regulars from last year's squad. Senior shooting guard Matt Rum, who is committed to William and Mary, returns to the Dons' backcourt. Senior forward Brandon Floyd,

J. Michini S.J.

J. Michini S.J.

last year's super versatile 6th man returns to the hardwood after a stellar senior year on the Dons' football team. The last returning regular is senior center Trevor Dauses (a successful three sport athlete in volleyball, basketball and lacrosse). Seniors Perry Mahle and Blake Wier also return from last years squad and look to make contributions to this year's team. Another senior looking to make a difference is senior forward Terrance Garvin.

There will be several juniors that have moved up from last year's jv team including point guard Mike Fitzpatrick, guard Emmitt Cahill, guard John Fiocco, guard Teddy Pons, guard Ellis Floyd, forward Brendan Hartman and center James Murphy.

The Greyhounds from Gilman have a new coach this year. Coach Tim Holley returns as the Greyhounds' head coach, having served in the same capacity from 1987-1994. Gilman will have lots of experience this year as they return 8 seniors from last year's team.
